

To mute all players in-game (so you don't hear them talking to your child on mic) go to Setting → Sound → at the bottom of these setting select "Turn Voice Chat Off". Select this and no players will be able to chat over the mic with your child.

How to Report on Fortnite (By Game Mode)

Battle Royal (Game mode): In game go to MENU → Select Feedback → Select the Player you are reporting → Select what you are reporting → Hit Report

Save The World (Game Mode): In game go to MENU → Select Report Player → Select the Player you are reporting → Select what you are reporting → Hit Report

Over 20% of Fortnite Gamers admit

GOOD POINTS

1. It's free to play the basic game on console, PC, android or iOS
2. The celebration dances have become a craze
3. There is an option to play the game Privately with friends
4. You can mute the voice chat option
5. The game can be very sociable if used In the correct way
6. Reporting concerns is relatively easy to do

BAD POINTS

1. It is extremely addictive, some children review Fortnite as "Like Crack" because it is so addictive.
2. Some children are adding 100's of strangers to their 'friends' list because they have spent 20 minutes with them in game. They never delete them.
3. There are an increasing amount of reports of grooming occurring through the chat system
4. Anger concerns are being attributed to excessive use of Fortnite (even after playing)
5. Culturally the game is massive, with a huge social media following so children might feel left out if they don't play

FORNITE

Parent Opinion:

Mother of 6, 10 & 13 year old

So sick of game creators making these addictive games. Free? There is outrageously expensive purchases and over sexualized women within. Some people think there is no blood, you shoot and there is blood. I regret letting my children on this game it turned them into mindless zombies until I could get them off it.

@OnlineSafetyUK1

"Online Safety UK"

"OnlineSafetyUK"

Lee@OnlineSafetyUK.com

www.OnlineSafetyUK.com